

I would like for our no call list to stay in effect indefinitely. I am happy that I no longer receive all the calls that I had gotten in the past. These telemarketers at times are down right rude and they have a hard time accepting the word NO. I believe that it is my right to be able to block unwanted and unsolicited calls from my phone.